

ENGL 4988 / ENGL 5988

Practicum in Literature and Language Arts

Story Experience

- Work with a Milwaukee-based nonprofit organization.
- Learn to facilitate story-work in a range of forms from oral histories to arts-based models.
- Final projects help build a public archive of Milwaukee stories.
- Students earn a stipend of $750 per semester for their work.

Put humanities and arts skills into practice to build community.

Publishing Experience

- Work as a publishing intern on or off campus.
- Gain hands-on experience in book, magazine, journal, or newsletter publishing.
- Develop editorial, marketing, and publicity skills.
- Learn about current issues affecting the publishing field.

CONTACT:

DR. SARAH WADSWORTH
MARQUETTE HALL 212

sarah.wadsworth@marquette.edu

ESSV-2

