Back lawn of Sensenbrenner Hall

Please bring your own beverage!

HONORS INFO

Honors Suite: Sensenbrenner Hall, Room 002

The Honors suite is open for your use! Feel free to use the refrigerator, the microwave, and the whiteboard (no permanent markers please). When the office is staffed during the day, we welcome the company; just keep conversations on the quiet side during those hours.

All three floors of Sensenbrenner are open to you for study. As Sensenbrenner is the home of the College of Arts and Sciences, the History department, and the Center for Advancement of the Humanities please be courteous and respectful of our common spaces. In the six years that Honors students have had extended-hours access to Sensenbrenner we have never had a problem, and we are sure that will continue!

- Honors Sensenbrenner Hours:
 - Monday through Friday, 8am – 12am
 - Saturday and Sunday, 7am – 12am
 - Outside business hours, doors can be opened by swiping your MUID. Freshmen MUIDS have not yet been added to the system for non-business hours, but will be by the end of this week!

Honors Advising

Academic advising is available to all Core and Disciplinary Honors students throughout the academic year. Conversations of all kinds are welcome -- come with a specific question or just to say hello.

- Online or In-Person (*Check posted schedule on the website)
- To make an advising appointment, visit the Honors Advising Calendar
- Standard appointments are 15 minutes. If you expect you will need more time, please email in advance
- If you sign up for an appointment but then find you can't make it, please be courteous and cancel your appointment online.

FRESHMEN ORIENTATION RECAP

During honors freshmen orientation, new students participated in a meditation led by Professor Jon Metz, heard from upperclassmen on research and language studies, speed-friended their peers and faculty members, and created five Spotify playlists! Check out the inaugural MU Honors Spotify and Class of 2026 playlists by clicking the icon below!
