

Throwback Thursdays 30th Anniversary Review NEWS

Since 2003, the Haggerty Museum of Art has hosted public discussions focused on art and social change. Panelists include elected officials, business and community leaders, and members of the arts community in strategic dialogues on how the arts contribute to a vital community and advance the quality of economic, social, and educational opportunities.

Featured in the image above are the 2004 candidates for City of Milwaukee Mayor and County Executive, and other guests including (L to R) Attorney James H. Hall, Jr, candidate David Riemer, candidate Scott Walker, moderator Jeffrey Browne, candidate Marvin Pratt, candidate Tom Barrett, and Director Dr. Curtis L. Carter.
