

THE DR. MARYANNE SIDERITS ANNUAL DISTINGUISHED LECTURE IN GENDER AND SEXUALITY STUDIES

Outstanding Young Scholars in Psychology of Gender: Cutting-edge Findings and Future Directions

Sa-kiera Hudson, PhD

Dr. Hudson is a Postdoctoral Associate in the Social Perception and Communications Lab at Yale University. Her research investigates the psychological and biological roots of power hierarchies.

Dr. Pietri is an Assistant Professor at Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI). Her work seeks to uncover how basic processes in social cognition and attitudes influence a variety of domains that are pertinent to real-world issues.

Dr. Toosi is an Assistant Professor at California State University, East Bay. Her research deals with social identities of race, gender, and religion, as well as their intersectionality.

Eva Pietri, PhD

Negin Toosi, PhD

April 1, 2021

3:30-5:00 PM

Event hosted virtually
Register at EventBrite:
tinyurl.com/1b5eq9r4