

The Provost's Office announces the following assessment mini-grant awards for the Spring 2012 semester:

"Assessing our Principal and Leadership Preparation Programs." Rev. Jeffrey LaBelle, S.J., (College of Education). $2,400.

"IDIVE – An Integrated Digital Immersive Virtual Environment to Facilitate Nursing Student Development of Clinical Reasoning." Dr. Kerry Kosmoski-Goepfert (College of Nursing) and Dr. John LaDisa (College of Engineering). $2,500.

"Summative Assessment of the College of Business Students' Global Perspectives." Dr. Jamshid Hosseini (College of Business Administration). $1,600.

"Measuring Intercultural Competence in Study Abroad." Blake Ward (Office of International Education). $2,500.

"Workshops to Jump-Start Development of Summative Performance Assessments for Student Teaching in Marquette's Teacher Education Programs." Dr. Joan Whipp (College of Education). $3,000.

"Assessment of Career Advising in the BISC Major." Michael Anderson (College of Health Sciences). $1,875.

"A Summative Direct Assessment of the CoB Core using the ETS Major Field Test." Dr. Noreen Lephardt (College of Business Administration). $2,400.

"NVivo Software: A Tool for Qualitative Data Analysis." Dr. Jon Dooley (Office of Student Development). $1,225.

"Coding Direct Measures of Learning Outcomes." Courtney Hanson (Career Services Center). $500.

"A Comprehensive Instrument for Assessing Foreign Language Proficiency Program-Wide." Dr. Todd Hernandez and Dr. John Pustejovsky (College of Arts and Sciences). $2,000.