At the completion of the Knowledge Area – Diverse Cultures, the graduate is able to:

1. Identify differences and similarities in communication, values, practices, and beliefs between one’s own culture and other cultures.

2. Explain how categories of human diversity (such as race, gender, ethnicity, and disability) influence personal identities and can create structural and institutional inequity.

3. Critically reflect upon one’s personal and cultural presuppositions and how these affect one’s values and relationships.