At the completion of the Knowledge Area – Science and Nature, the graduate is able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of major concepts, tools and methodologies in one of the natural sciences.

2. Understand processes, limitations and ethics of scientific inquiry.

3. Use scientific inquiry to solve problems and evaluate information.