At the completion of the Knowledge Area – Theology, the graduate is able to:

1. Describe theologically the basic content of the Catholic faith in relation to other Christian and religious traditions as well as other world views.

2. Interpret theological texts and frameworks in their historical contexts.

3. Articulate implications of Christian faith for growth in holiness and the promotion of justice in the contemporary world.