Professional Communication  B.A. (April 2013)
At the completion of the Professional Communication Major, the graduate is able to:

1. Explain major theories of, approaches to, and perspectives on communication and apply to multiple professional contexts.

2. Demonstrate communication competence in professional interpersonal, group, public, organizational, and intercultural contexts.

3. Evaluate and conduct research.