Provide an example of the program’s most interesting or important assessment finding that demonstrates the program’s success associated with a program learning outcome.

96% of MSN graduates who took the National Certification examination in 2009 passed on the first attempt. Our measure is that 85% of MSN graduates who take certification exams will pass on the first attempt. The National average is 86%.

Describe an assessment result that indicates an opportunity for improvement and identify the specific actions the program will take to improve student learning.

Communication in writing is a critical skill for nurses in advanced practice and leadership positions. Core course assignments will include written assignments that develop student's ability to clearly articulate the integration and synthesis of clinical and theoretical nursing knowledge.