CRIMINOLOGY AND LAW STUDIES (August 2006)
At the completion of the Criminology and Law Studies major, the graduate is able to:

1. Understand and critically analyze criminological concepts and theories.

2. Understand and critically analyze the organization, culture, and operation of the major institutions of the criminal justice system (Law Enforcement, Courts and Adjudication, and Corrections.)

3. Use an appropriate empirical research method to describe and understand a social issue.