At the completion of the Electrical and Computer Engineering M.S. degree program, the graduate is able to:

1. Demonstrate technical proficiency in at least one area of Electrical and Computer Engineering.

2. Advance their career through state-of-the art knowledge of Electrical and Computer Engineering.

3. (Thesis option only) Communicate research results to a scientific audience.