ENGINEERING MANAGEMENT M.S.E.M. (Updated 5/12/08)
At the completion of the Engineering Management M.S.E.M. degree program, the graduate is able to:

1. Communicate effectively orally and in writing.

2. Think analytically and critically to facilitate problem solving and decision-making.

3. Apply the professional knowledge and skills of engineering and management.