NURSING  M.S.N. (August 2006)
At the completion of the Nursing M.S.N. degree program, the graduate is able to:

1. Use theories and evidence from research and related disciplines to guide advanced nursing practice.

2. Use data and analytical processes to discover, critique, and synthesize nursing knowledge.

3. Demonstrate competence in selected scope of graduate level nursing practice.