After participation of a year or more in the intercollegiate athletics center services, the student is able to:

1. Entering freshmen will develop study skills that will reduce anxiety associated with the challenges of college academics.