After participation in Student Development programs, the student is able to:

1. Interact effectively with people from diverse backgrounds and lifestyles.
2. Use their talents to benefit others.