From The Director

Welcome and thank you for choosing to attend this evening's performance of the Marquette University Jazz Ensembles! The Marquette University Jazz Ensembles are committed to musical education through jazz, and by performing music drawn from the wide variety of styles available through this wonderful medium, we hope you learn a little bit about music and jazz in the course of this terrifically entertaining concert! In the course of the evening, we will visit latin, rock, fusion and blues styles, and give you a taste of each of these many flavors of the wonderful music we call jazz. So sit back, relax, have fun, and come back and see us again next year!
