

INTERNSHIP

January 15th, 2008

Would you like to become part of Spanglish La Revista®?
Are you a college student majoring in English, journalism or communications?

Spanglish La Revista® is currently looking for writers for our bilingual, monthly publication and our Web site, www.gotspanglish.com. Spanglish La Revista® is a bilingual, cultural publication that caters to all people interested in learning more about Latino Lifestyle, Culture, and Entertainment in Southeastern Wisconsin.

This internship will give you hands-on experience interviewing local businesses, artists, and community members. Interns will also have the opportunity to write for the magazine, take part in editorial meetings, and offer opinions and story ideas.

This is a non-paid internship but you will receive a solid experience working for a distinguished publication. Prospective candidates must possess interviewing and reporting skills, strong grammar and writing proficiency. Being bilingual is a plus. Interns can work from their home but will meet once a week at our office and may be asked to do interviews at different locations.

Interested applicants should supply the following:

- 1) A cover letter explaining why you want to work for Spanglish La Revista®
- 2) At least two work samples to demonstrate your talent

Questions should be directed to:
