

“I consider Teaching to be my calling. My goal is to provide the spark for the ignition or stoking of a fire for the life-long learning of my students.”

Sheila Buechel

Adjunct Instructor

sheila.buechel@marquette.edu

Courses Taught

- ORLE 132 Organizational Behavior
- ORLE 139 Communicating Leadership: Issues and Applications
- ORLE 133 Organization Development and Change
- ORLE 134 Organizational Processes

Education

- Marquette University,
- M.B.A.
 - B.A. English/Business Administration,
 - Online Teaching Certificate
 - Currently pursuing a Masters in Leadership Studies through the College of Professional Studies

Research Interests

- Women in Leadership. I will be creating a course which will address the specific nuances that women bring to leadership.

Professional Experience

- 10 years of industrial sales, marketing and training experience throughout the Midwest. Industrial hydraulics and proactive maintenance equipment for the industrial sector are the primary areas of my background.
- I have been an instructor at Marquette's College of Professional Studies since 2000.