Alpha Sigma Nu Spring 2010 Inductees

Scholarship • Loyalty • Service

Founded in 1915 at Marquette University, Alpha Sigma Nu (ASN) advances the core principles of Jesuit education—scholarship, loyalty and service. This national honor society acknowledges, awards and inspires a select group of students who distinguish themselves with respect to these principles while attending Jesuit institutions of higher education. ASN also honors others who have distinguished themselves in scholarship, loyalty and service through their intellectual, civic, religious, professional or commercial pursuits. Please welcome our newest College of Professional Studies undergraduate students who were recognized at Marquette University's ASN induction ceremony in April 2010.

Alpha Sigma Lambda Spring 2010 Inductees Zeta Chi Chapter

Unique in its concept, unique in its creation, Alpha Sigma Lambda (ASL) is unique in its goals. It strives to provide stimulating impetus to highly motivated adult students in continuing higher education. Alpha Sigma Lambda recognizes the special achievement of adults who accomplish academic excellence while facing competing interests of home and work.

Alpha Sigma Lambda is dedicated to the advancement of scholarship and recognizes high scholastic achievement in an adult student's academic career.

Non-traditional degree-seeking students must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.200 or higher and have earned a minimum of 30 Marquette credits.
