

2000s

Erik Heinrichs (BA) will receive his PhD in early modern German history in spring 2009 from Harvard University.

Erica Heisser (BA) is now assistant coach of the Marquette women's volleyball team.

Bryan Keane (BA) attended Marquette University law school, where he was an editor of the law review, and is an attorney in the Minneapolis office of the international law firm Dorsey & Whitney.

Kelly O'Donnell (BA) served for two years in Micronesia where she spent two years with the Jesuit Volunteers International program. While there, she taught at a boarding high school (English literature, English skills, and computer science), directed the Campus Ministry program, and started the school's first drama club. She also has worked in Chicago as a Case Manager at a Refugee Resettlement Program through Catholic Charities and in Washington DC at the Migration Policy Institute—a bipartisan think-tank—as the primary research assistant on the Iraqi refugee crisis

Kate A. Porubcansky (BA) is Assistant Dean and Director of the Center for Student Involvement at Otterbein College in Ohio.

Jennifer Rager (BA) received her MA in Higher Education at Boston College and works as an academic advisor in the First Year of Studies Program at the University of Notre Dame.

Matt Riley (BA) received his law degree from the University of California-Berkeley and is an associate in the Jenner & Block law firm's litigation department in its Chicago office.

David J. Scriven-Young (BA) earned his law degree at DePaul University and is an associate in the Chicago office of the McDermott Will & Emery law firm. He is a member of the Firm's Trial Department, where his practice focuses on environmental, energy, natural resources, products liability and mass tort law. He is a past recipient of the Great Lakes Stewardship Award for Advocate of the Year from the Alliance for the Great Lakes.

Hillary Segura (BA) is an associate in the Chaplin Law Office in Marinette, Wisconsin.

Mary Beth Stanton (BA) received her MA in History and Public Policy from George Washington University. She served as a legislative assistant to U. S. Senator Herb Kohl and is now Managing Director for Public Law & Policy Strategies for the Washington law firm of Sonnenschein, Nath, and Rosenthal, specializing in education and health care policy.

Jay Steinmetz (BA) served as a platoon leader and public affairs officer in the United States Army and is now a consulting manager in strategic planning, public affairs, diplomacy, homeland defense planning and operations, and security and police policy planning. His clients include the Saudi Arabian Ministry of Interior, the U.S. Department of State, and the Iraqi Ministry of Interior.

Heather Stur (BA, MA) received her PhD from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and is an assistant professor of history at the University of Southern Mississippi. Her research interests include the Vietnam War, the cultural side of U.S. diplomacy, race and gender studies, oral history, and U.S. urban history. In her spare time she runs marathons.

Matt Sulkala (BA) was an aide to U. S. Representative Allen Boyd of Florida and is a lobbyist for the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America .

Danielle Tonelli (BA) received her doctor of osteopathic medicine degree from the Chicago College of Osteopathic Medicine and is currently completing her residency at St. Luke's Hospital in Milwaukee.

Matthew J. Torbenson (BA) received his law degree from Marquette University and is an assistant district attorney in Milwaukee.

Fr. Baskara Wardaya, SJ (PhD) is a Jesuit priest teaching history and philosophy at the University of Sanata Dharma and Gajah Mada University in Indonesia. He is the author of Membongkar Supersemar! Dari CIA hingga Kudeta Merangkak Melawan Bung Karno (Supersemar Revealed! From the CIA to the creeping Coup D'etat against Bung Karno (Galang Press, 2007), for which he has been interviewed by the BBC and news organizations throughout the world.