Welcome to Mission Week 2008!

This year marks the 100th birthday of the late Rev. Pedro Arrupe, S.J., Superior General of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) from 1965 to 1983. Father Arrupe, like his long-ago predecessor, Ignatius of Loyola, was a man of vision and conviction. His intellect, compassion and leadership combined in both obvious and subtle ways to create a powerful example of placing the poor and marginalized at the center of our concern. Father Arrupe’s famous speech asserting the absolute priority of Jesuit education to be the formation of “[women and] men for others” is now the standard to which we hold ourselves accountable.

In the spirit of Father Arrupe, this year’s Mission Week theme is Faith Doing Justice, reflecting our commitment to a Marquette education that integrates intellectual rigor, spiritual depth and concrete action for a more just and peaceful world. A wide selection of events has been designed to explore each of these important dimensions of Marquette, and we encourage you to take advantage of as many programs as possible.

The success of Mission Week ultimately can be judged by the way God’s spirit of Faith Doing Justice becomes evident in our own lives and work. Enjoy Mission Week 2008 as we explore that challenge!

Get your tickets to the Faith Day keynote event: CNN’s Soledad O’Brien hosts a distinguished panel on “War, Peace and People of Faith.”

Ongoing, Feb. 3–9

Online

Raynor Memorial Libraries have prepared a resource guide to support reading and discussion of Mission Week topics and keynote panelists, the service of faith and promotion of justice, war and peace, moral decision-making, and tools for personal discernment. The resource guide includes books, articles, DVDs, videos and Web sites. To explore these topics or integrate them into classroom discussion, go to marquette.edu/library/information/news/2008/MissionWeek.html.

The Big Picture Collage Project

Do you have a photo of Marquette students, faculty or staff doing justice or service in the community? Send your digital photo through the Mission Week site (marquette.edu/missionweek) and help us create a collage of Marquette-in-service images in the AMU rotunda. Best photos will be displayed on the Office of Mission and Identity Web site (marquette.edu/missionweek). Best photos will be displayed on the Office of Mission and Identity Web site (marquette.edu/missionweek).

Do You Remember? Explore Marquette’s Fascinating Past

Through the courtesy of Milwaukee Public Television, Marquette is delighted to stream online an episode of the acclaimed series, I Remember. Hosted by our own Jim Peck, the program takes viewers on a whirlwind trip through the university’s colorful history. Go to the Mission Week Web site (marquette.edu/missionweek) to connect. Participating in this Mission Week program is just a click away!

Reflecting on Faith Doing Justice

Looking for a little inspiration and connection with others? Watch for daily e-mailed Mission Week reflections written by members of the Marquette community. Sponsored by the Faber Center for Ignatian Spirituality.

Buy Your Faith Doing Justice T-shirt

Show your support for Mission Week 2008 by purchasing a shirt with this year’s cool logo in the AMU rotunda, at the Office of Student Development, or at University Ministry. Available while supplies last.

“The Grandeur of God”: Photographs by Don Doll, S.J.

In conjunction with Rev. Don Doll’s visit to Marquette as the Wade Scholar Lecturer for the spring semester, the Haggerty Museum of Art presents an exhibition of Doll’s Native American images; panoramas along the Lewis and Clark Trail; Jesuits assisting refugees in Uganda, Sudan and Eastern Europe; landmine victims in Angola; and Tsunami survivors in India and Sri Lanka. Father Doll is a Jesuit priest and award-winning photographer whose work has been featured in National Geographic and a number of the Day in the Life of... books. More photographs have been published as National Geographic’s Dying for a Piece of a Piece: An African Art, War and Fashion show. The exhibition opens April 13. Sponsored by the Haggerty Museum of Art. associate professor of theology and graduate student at Marquette University. He is married and has three children and enjoys spending time with his family. He is also a member of the Marquette community since 1990. His interest in faith and justice is reflected in his work on both local and global issues.

Rev. Bryan Massingale, O.M.I.

Rev. Bryan Massingale, O.M.I., is a Jesuit priest and an associate professor at Marquette University. He is a scholar of the Catholic Church and a member of the Jesuit Order. His research focuses on the relationship between faith and social justice, particularly in the context of the United States and Latin America. He has written extensively on the role of faith in shaping social policies and has been an active advocate for justice and peace in his local community.

Monday, Feb. 4

11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Meeting Room 4B, AMU

Rev. George Cunniff, O.F.M.Cap.,”A Simple Meal of Soup and Human Service.”

Rev. George Cunniff, O.F.M.Cap., is a Jesuit priest and a member of the Marquette community. He is known for his work on social justice and human service. His talk will focus on the importance of simple acts of service and how they can create a positive impact on those in need.

2 p.m. - 3 p.m.

Meeting Room 4B, AMU

Dr. David Buckholdt, “Diversity, Social Justice and Cultural Sciences.”

Dr. David Buckholdt is a social scientist and a member of the Marquette community. His research focuses on diversity, social justice, and cultural sciences. He will discuss how these issues are interconnected and how they can be addressed in practical ways.

Tuesday, Feb. 5

2 p.m. - 3 p.m.

Raynor Library Beaumier Center Lounge, AMU 121

Dr. Robert Masson, S.J., “Helping Students See Themselves the Way of the Cross.”

Dr. Robert Masson, S.J., is a Jesuit priest and a member of the Marquette community. He is known for his work on faith and justice. His talk will focus on the importance of self-reflection and how it can be used to guide personal growth.

4 p.m. - 5 p.m.

Varsity Theatre

Soledad O'Brien, “War, Conflict and Justice.”

Soledad O'Brien is a television journalist and a member of the Marquette community. Her talk will focus on the role of media in shaping public opinion on issues of war, conflict, and justice.

Thursday, Feb. 7

2 p.m. - 3 p.m.

Cudahy OO1

Douglas MacIvor, “A Global Citizen’s Journey.”

Douglas MacIvor is a journalist and a member of the Marquette community. His talk will focus on his journey as a global citizen and how it has informed his work as a journalist.

4 p.m. - 5 p.m.

Cudahy OO1

Don’t Miss This Vigorous Exchange Among Concerned Individuals on the Topic of “War, Conflict and Injustice.”

Don’t miss this vigorous exchange among concerned individuals on the topic of “War, Conflict and Injustice.” The panelists will discuss how faith affects our understanding of these issues and how it can be used to promote peace and justice.

Friday, Feb. 8

1-2 p.m.

Cudahy OO1

Discussing the Globalization of Christ.

Discussing the Globalization of Christ. The discussion will focus on the role of faith in shaping global policies and how it can be used to promote justice and peace.

1-2 p.m.

Cudahy OO1

Ethics Lecture: “Journalism and Ethics.”

Ethics Lecture: “Journalism and Ethics.” The lecture will focus on the role of ethics in journalism and how it can be used to promote justice and peace.

2-3 p.m.

Cudahy OO1

“Voices of Faith and Justice: Faith That Calls Me To Service.”

“Voices of Faith and Justice: Faith That Calls Me To Service.” The discussion will focus on the role of faith in shaping personal and professional decisions.

3 p.m. - 4 p.m.

Cudahy OO1

“Day of Alms.”

“Day of Alms.” The discussion will focus on the role of faith in shaping personal and professional decisions.

Sponsored by the Marquette University Mission and Ministry Office of Community Engagement.

Sunday, Feb. 3

6:30 p.m.

Gesu Church

Gesu Church Mission Week Mass Sunday, Feb. 3