MS. THELMA SIAS

WE ENERGIES EXECUTIVE AND PROMINENT AFRICAN-AMERICAN BUSINESSWOMAN

Thelma A. Sias retired very recently, after a long and storied career as both a prominent business woman, and one of the most influential executives in Milwaukee. Her career as an executive at We Energies has been recognized by countless local organizations, including being declared one of the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel's "Top 40 Under 40" local professionals in 1992, and eventually being inducted into the "Top 40 Under 40" Hall of Fame in 2015. Additionally, Ms. Sias has been recognized by the Milwaukee Common Council for her many contributions to the local community, and most recently, the Milwaukee Urban League established the Thelma A. Sias Fellows of Distinction award, in order to ensure her legacy continues. In her personal life, she has served on boards for numerous local organizations, including both the Children's Hospital Foundation, and a past co-chair for the United Way of Greater Milwaukee's capital campaign. Thanks in part to Thelma Sias' efforts, Milwaukee is a better place to live and work.
