Sessions

Ask the Experts — Got a quick admissions or financial aid question? Our counselors are available to address your inquiries.

Explore the Academic Colleges — Marquette has seven academic colleges comprising 115 majors. Take some time to browse our programs.

Why Marquette? — You're beginning your college search, so it's time to begin asking tough questions. Learn about Marquette, and discover the answer to "Why Marquette?"

What's Next? — Are you curious about the types of classes you should take, how to prepare for standardized tests and how the application process works? Meet an admissions counselor, who will share great tips.

Affording Higher Education — Learn how to make higher education more affordable at this financial aid and scholarship session.

Real Students. Real Advice. — Hear from Marquette students who have been in your shoes. They're here to offer advice.

Continuous sessions throughout the day

Campus tours — Take a 30-minute tour with one of our world-famous tour guides. The last tour will begin at 2:15 p.m.

Residence hall tours — Want to see what your room might look like? Check in at the front desk of a selected residence hall, and one of our staff members will show you. Cobeen is our all-female residence hall, O'Donnell is all male, and McCormick and Abbottsford are coed.

Please note: For those interested in attending religious services, Catholic Mass is celebrated at 4:30 p.m. at Church of the Gesu.

* Some departments have specialty facilities open for tours from noon–1:30 p.m. Representatives at the academic browsing session will have information, if available. Just ask!
