2003-2004 Free Application For Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
Worksheet for Question 35

Your answer to question 35 may affect your eligibility for federal student aid.

“1” means your eligibility for federal student aid is not affected by question 35. may still be eligible for state and school aid.

“2” means your drug conviction(s) affect eligibility for federal student aid for part of the school year. You can become eligible earlier in the school year if you complete an acceptable drug rehab program. You “3” means you are not eligible for federal student aid for this school year unless you complete an acceptable drug rehab program. You may still be eligible for state and school aid.

If you are convicted of possessing or selling drugs after you submit your FAFSA, you must notify the financial aid office immediately. You will lose your eligibility and must pay back all aid you received after your conviction.

On this worksheet count only federal or state convictions. Do not count any convictions that have been removed from your record, or occurred before you turned 18, unless you were tried as an adult.
