

Be The Difference.

Marquette University Center for Transnational Justice Lecture Series and the Mexico - US Solidarity Network

Present

Verónica Leyva

Verónica Leyva is a grassroots organizer in Ciudad Juarez, Mexico. She spent ten years working in the maquiladora industry, and has been organizing in her community for fifteen years conducting workshops on worker's and women's rights. In her presentation Verónica Leyva will discuss the grassroots struggle at the border to confront militarization, violence against women, increased internal migration, and the ties between the narco-conflict and free trade.

Ciudad Juarez: The Definitive Neoliberal City

Tuesday, February 8, 2011, 5:30 p.m.

Alumni Memorial Union Room 227 1442 West Wisconsin Avenue

Free and Open to the Public

For event information, call (414) 288-5991 or email h.r.friman@marquette.edu