GSO Happy Hour Tonight

Take a study break tonight with the GSO! All graduate students are invited to put down the books, let the laptops charge, and take a break. We will meet at Caffrey’s (717 N. 16th Street) Thursday, November 19 beginning at 7:00 p.m. Buy yourself a beverage and relax with your fellow graduate students. We look forward to seeing you all there!

Procedures for Continuous Enrollment Courses

The Graduate School will now register graduate students for all continuous enrollment courses. Students should view the section titled “Registration – Continuous enrollment courses” to view the updated forms: http://www.marquette.edu/grad/forms_index.shtml.

Forms must be downloaded and signed by the student and adviser before submission to the Graduate School.

Registration is now open for the next Dissertation Boot Camp, which will be held Monday – Friday, January 11-15, 2016. Participants will work from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.
Dissertation Boot Camp offers a dedicated time and location for Ph.D. students to come together and work toward the completion of their dissertations. The boot camp also provides an opportunity for dissertators to connect with each other. For more information, and to register for the boot camp, click here: http://www.marquette.edu/grad/Camp.shtml

If you have questions about boot camp, contact Rachel Rouse at rachel.rouse@marquette.edu.

Academic Integrity Tutorial Required for Registration

If you have an administrative hold in CheckMarq, it may be because you haven’t completed the Academic Integrity Tutorial. Graduate students are required to complete the tutorial before registering for spring 2016 courses.

Click here for the tutorial

Please note that there is a posting period of 24 hours after the tutorial is completed before your registration hold will be removed from CheckMarq.

Campus Food Resources for Students

Did you know there are resources available for students who don’t have enough to eat? The Division of Student Affairs and Campus Ministry are dedicated to ensuring that our students have adequate nourishment to focus on their studies. If you or someone you know are experiencing difficulties finding food, please check out: http://marquette.edu/dsa/nourish/.

Check your Graduation Application in CheckMarq

A new graduation application summary page is now available in CheckMarq. This page summarizes the information submitted when you applied for graduation. You will now receive an email when your graduation application has been submitted directing you to the Graduation link in CheckMarq to review and update your information.

To access the graduation summary page: log onto CheckMarq and enter the Student Services Center (Main Menu>Campus Community>Student Services Center). In the top left corner you will see a ‘Graduation’ link. Click on this link to see the information that was submitted.

You may review your application and edit your diploma name, invitee names/addresses and commencement participation choices directly from this page without the need to submit an updated form.
When a graduation application is withdrawn, you will receive an email with a reminder that you must reapply for graduation in a future term. After an application is withdrawn, the summary page will no longer be available.
