1. Upcoming Deadlines: Graduation, Financial Aid

If you read nothing else in MUGS News, please read the "Upcoming Deadlines" section each month! MUGS News will keep you informed of all important Graduate School deadlines. It is our principal way of keeping you on track so you can officially complete your program. Missing certain deadlines can have serious academic or financial consequences.

Note: Programs in the Graduate School of Management may follow a slightly different calendar or have different deadlines. Graduate students in accounting, business administration, executive MBA, economics, and human resources programs should visit the GSM website for deadlines, program requirements, announcements, and academic schedules that are unique to them.

The full Academic Calendar, including deadlines and vacation schedule is online at MU Central Academic Calendar 2011-12. An alternate, Graduate School-only listing of Important Dates and Deadlines is available on the Graduate School's website.

Graduation: December, 2011

Wednesday, October 5, 2011

2. Doctoral Students: Dissertation Boot Camp Schedule

The Graduate School is happy to announce the dates of its 2012 Dissertation Boot Camps. The Graduate School offers three one-week periods of intensive research, reflection and writing each year for doctoral students writing their dissertations. Over the past four years, more than one hundred doctoral students have benefitted from the events.

Our Dissertation Boot Camps (DBC's) offer a dedicated time and location for students to come together and work toward the completion of their dissertations. Faculty facilitators are available throughout the week to monitor progress and offer suggestions. Additionally, the boot camps provide an opportunity for dissertators to connect with other doctoral students and establish a sense of community.

The dates for the 2012 Dissertation Boot Camps are:

- Monday, January 9 – Friday, January 13, 2012
- Monday, June 4 – Friday, June 8, 2012
- Monday, August 6 – Friday, August 10, 2012

Registration for the January boot camp will open October 1, 2011. The events take place in the lower level of Raynor Library from 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. daily.

We continue to receive positive feedback from our boot camp alumni. Consider asking a past participant about their DBC experience or feel free to contact Bethany Neubauer at bethany.neubauer@marquette.edu with your questions.

3. Graduate Assistants: Student Health Insurance Information

Insurance Cards

Graduate assistants who have been offered student health insurance should have received their insurance cards by mail. If you haven't received yours, please contact Student Assurances Services at (800) 328-2739 to request a duplicate card. You may also come to the Graduate School and pick up a temporary card that you can use until you receive your official card.

Update Your Address

It is your responsibility to keep your local address updated on both CheckMarq and by notifying Student Assurances Services. If you change your address with Student Assurances Services but do not change it on CheckMarq, your SAS address will be overwritten by the CheckMarq address.

Information About Your Policy

Information about the student health insurance policy is available on the website from Marquette's Office of Risk Management. Go to the "Student Health Insurance" link, and then select "Mandatory Select Graduate School Health Insurance – Plan Brochure."

International Students

International students must purchase the student health insurance policy that the Office of International Education requires. They are billed for the insurance premium each semester through their Bursar accounts and they must make payment arrangements with the Bursar.

The Graduate School does not pay for health insurance for international students. However, if you are an international student with a full graduate assistant, you may qualify for reimbursement of a portion of your costs. A credit will be applied to qualified international students' Bursar accounts in mid-September by the Graduate School. This is a one-time credit. Another credit will not be given in January when spring insurance premiums are due.

4. Graduate Student Organization News: Fall Bowling League, NFL “Eliminator Challenge”

The Graduate Student Organization (GSO) invites all graduate and professional students to participate in the many upcoming social and professional development events scheduled for this semester. The GSO is an outlet for all graduate students and is instrumental in making innovative changes and improvements to graduate student life.

Graduate Student Fall Bowling League

The GSO is sponsoring a graduate student bowling league this fall. It is open to graduate, law, dental and professional students. The league will meet on Tuesday evenings at 9 p.m. at the Union Sports Annex (16th and Wells Street). Three games, including shoe rental, is only $6. Teams of four people will be created.

If you would like to sign up to join a team, or already have a 4-person team, e-mail your registration to gso@marquette.edu and let's go bowling!

Graduate Student – NFL “Eliminator Challenge”

Challenge your MU friends in the ESPN.com NFL “Eliminator Challenge”, sponsored by the Graduate Student Organization (GSO). How do you play?

1. Choose Wisely – Pick the winner of one game for each of the 17 weeks in the NFL season (or make all your picks at once).
2. No doubling up – You can only pick a team once during the season, so be mindful of the entire schedule.
3. Avoid Elimination – Build a winning streak as long as possible. One loss means you could be out (but not likely).

Sign up at <http://games.espn.go.com/eliminator-challenge/en/group?groupID=4202>; our Group Name is “Marquette Grad Students.” No password is required.

The overall winner will receive a Marquette sweatshirt hoodie!

GSO Website

Visit the GSO website to learn more about your Graduate Student Organization. Go to <http://www.marquette.edu/grad/GSO/index.shtml>.

Look for upcoming GSO e-mails of ways to get involved.

5. Preparing Future Faculty News

Sponsored by the Graduate School at Marquette University, Preparing Future Faculty (PFF) is open to all graduate students and postdoctoral fellows. The aim of the certificate program is to help prepare participants for a successful career in higher education as an academic, with emphasis on developing skills to teach effectively and preparation to navigate the initial stages of an academic job search.

You will have the opportunity to:

- Develop a teaching philosophy that reflects your values.
- Plan a course with clearly defined goals and objectives.
- Design a syllabus.
- Obtain feedback on your teaching.
- Actively assess your students' learning.
- Use technology more effectively in your teaching.
- Enhance professional and career development.
- Secure grants and other sources of funding.
- Create a teaching portfolio.

Participants completing the PFF program requirements, including the creation of a teaching portfolio, will be awarded a notation on their Marquette University transcript. Completion of the certificate program can be done at any time during your graduate career.

If you would like to learn more about PFF, contact Robert Ramos, the graduate student program coordinator, at mupff@marquette.edu or at (414) 288-5957.

The PFF office address is Holthusen Hall, Room 460C, 1324 W. Wisconsin Ave., Milwaukee, WI, 53233. For information online, visit the PFF website.

6. Resources: Graduate School Bulletin; New Student Orientation, Office Location and Contact Information

Graduate School Bulletin

Printed copies of the Graduate School Bulletin are a thing of the past. Beginning this year, the Bulletin is exclusively online. The web address to the bulletin is <http://bulletin.marquette.edu/grad/>. A PDF version is in the works. We will notify you when it is available.

New Student Orientation

The Graduate School hosted its annual orientation for incoming graduate students at the Varsity Theatre Thursday evening, August 25, 2011. Incoming summer and fall students were invited to attend. If you didn't have a chance to attend the event, you can get most of the information online, including videos of the presentations. We hope you take the time to acquaint yourself with Graduate School and Marquette University policies, services and resources.

The orientation hosted by the Graduate School is geared toward students from most graduate programs. It is not mandatory and it is very general in nature. Some, but not all, departments also offer program-specific orientations; check with your department for more information.

Graduate School of Management students (accounting, business administration, economics, human resources) ought to visit the GSM online orientation website or call (414) 288-7145 for your orientation information.

All the best to you as you begin your graduate studies!

Office Location, Hours, and Staff

The Graduate School staff is here to help you. The Graduate School is located in room 305 in Holthusen Hall, 1324 W. Wisconsin Avenue.

Our office hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. We remain open during the lunch hour.

Phone: (414) 288-7137

Fax: (414) 288-1902

Phone numbers and e-mail addresses of the Graduate School staff are online.

7. Resources: Career Planning Workshops Offered on September 12, 13, 15

The Career Services Center, in conjunction with the Graduate School, is excited to sponsor a new series of workshops this year geared specifically toward graduate students. Events will be broken into three general career tracks: academia, nonprofit organizations, and corporate and industrial organizations. Each track will have three dedicated workshops during the course of the year to be hosted by representatives from Career Services and professionals from the given fields.

The first sessions this September will focus on the decision making and goal setting process involved in career planning. The next sessions will take place later in the fall semester and will cover the documents need to apply for jobs (i.e., cover letters and resumes or CV's). The third set of sessions will cover interviewing and will take place in the winter.

All graduate students are invited to these workshops – you don't need to RSVP; you can just show up. The first series of workshops take place the week of September 12 (see below). The schedule for the next set of workshops will be announced soon. We hope to see you at these sessions throughout the year as you begin the next steps of your path.

Student Career Decision Making and Goal Setting Workshops

- Monday, September 12, 2011: Nonprofit
3:30 – 4:30 p.m.
- Tuesday, September 13, 2011: Corporate/Industry
3:30 – 4:30 p.m.
- Thursday, September 15, 2011: Academic
3:30 – 4:30 p.m.

All workshops will be held in Holthusen Hall, Room 116K (in the Career Services Center).

8. Resources: Counseling Center's Fall Groups, Suicide Prevention Training, LGBTQ Students and Allies Discussion Group

The MU Counseling Center has announced its fall, 2011 groups:

Group: Creating the College Experience You Want

Drop-in group on Tuesdays and Wednesdays over the lunch hour. Located in Cudahy and D. Straz Hall. Runs for 4 weeks.

- Having difficulty adjusting to college life?
- Feeling like you don't fit in at MU?
- Feeling homesick?
- Wanting to make your MU experience a happy one?

This group offers you a chance to meet with other students who have similar experiences and want to create the college life they hope for. You'll learn different ways to feel more connected to MU. Come meet and support others while reaching for your own dreams!

Group: Adjusting to College

After the 4 weeks of drop-in groups, an ongoing adjustment group will be held in the counseling center. This is geared toward students who benefitted from the drop-in groups or arrived for services after the drop-ins ended, and would benefit from a semester's worth of meetings to aid with adjustment issues. Tuesdays from 11 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Info session on September 27th.

Group: Building Better Relationships

Slated to start around the 4th week of classes.

- Having difficulty with your roommate(s), family or friends?
- Want to learn ways to communicate that improve those relationships?
- Having trouble saying "No", holding your opinions inside or finding it hard to trust others?
- Want to learn the fundamentals of healthy relationships and how to create them?

This group offers you the opportunity to meet other students who have similar difficulties while providing a space to share and learn from each other. Come gain skills for improving communication as well as the quality of your relationships with others.

Group: Coping with Anxiety Together

Tuesdays from 3:15 - 4:30 p.m. Information session on September 27th.

- Worrying too much about getting good grades?
- Feeling extremely shy in social situations?
- Struggling with wanting to be perfect?
- Feeling like anxiety controls you, but want to learn to have control over your anxiety?

This group offers a chance to meet with other students who also have these experiences and want to learn how to better manage their own anxiety. Come gain a sense of confidence in your everyday activities while learning from and supporting each other.

Free Suicide Prevention Training

The Counseling Center will hold a QPR suicide-prevention training session Thursday, September 15, from 12 to 1:30 p.m. in AMU 254. The "Question, Persuade, Refer" training is a nationally-recognized program designed to save lives through increasing awareness about suicide risk factors and warning signs. It teaches participants how to talk to someone about suicide and educates participants on how to facilitate appropriate mental health referrals.

This training is open to the Marquette community. An RSVP would be appreciated. Contact the Counseling Center at (414) 288-7172 for more information or to confirm attendance.

LGBTQ Students and Allies Discussion Group

The LGBTQ Students and Allies Discussion Group is sponsored by Campus Ministry and the Counseling Center. It provides a safe, welcoming, confidential, and comfortable space to discuss questions that are important to you.

The discussion group meets bi-weekly on Monday night beginning September 12, 2011. Meetings take place in Cudahy Hall, room 143 from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. To sign up or receive more information, contact Angela Zapata, Counseling Center at (414) 288-7172, or Steve Blaha, Campus Ministry at (414) 288-3686.

The Graduate Student's Guide to Libraries is Online

This guide is for new and returning students and answers your questions about accessing collections and services. See the guide here.

RefWorks: Changes and Workshops

Effective in August, RefWorks now defaults to its new 2.0 interface. Users who wish to use the "old" interface may login and select the "RefWorks Classic" interface only through December 31. More about the changes here.

Both new and experienced users are invited to attend any of the hands-on workshops to learn how to set up your account, export citations, and create customized bibliographies in standard citation styles:

- Wednesday, September 14, 2011: 12-1:00 p.m.
- Thursday, September 15, 2011: 4-5:00 p.m.
- Monday, September 19, 2011: 1-2:00 p.m.
- Tuesday, September 20, 2011: 5-6:00 p.m.

Workshops are held in Raynor, 2nd floor classroom, R227. If you have questions or would like to register, contact rose.trupiano@marquette.edu. However, walk-ins are welcome.

Off-Campus Logins

The off-campus logins for library services and e-resources have changed. Your Marqnet username and password are now required for databases and Interlibrary Loan (Illiad). Read announcement details here.

September Events

- Monday, September 19, 2011 at 4:30 p.m.
Come to the series launch for "Louisa May Alcott: The Woman Behind Little Women." Live readings from several of Alcott's works will introduce the little-known side of Alcott as Civil War nurse, campaigner for women's rights and abolition of slavery, and resident of transcendental Concord, Massachusetts. Four additional events will be held during October and November.
- Tuesday, September 20, 2011 at 4:30 p.m.
Hear Nez Perce elder and historian W. Otis Halfmoon present "Are They Ready to Hear the Truth?: The National Park Service, American Indian History, and the Public."

Both events will be held in the Raynor Library Conference Center in the lower level of Raynor.

New e-Resources

More than a dozen new databases have been added since the beginning of 2011, and significant changes have been made to a number of important e-resources. New titles support research in many subjects, including Aristotle, anatomy, music, Chicano studies, Asian Studies, and the Enlightenment. See the latest additions here.

Distance Services for Graduate Students

The Libraries extend library services to graduate students who are currently registered with the university AND who do not take on-campus courses AND who are dissertating out of state, or are on internships or other placements. The program will send Marquette library materials – both books and journal articles – directly to your home. Interlibrary loan articles (but not books) may also be requested. For complete guidelines, follow the links from the library home page in the Services tab, then —Request Forms, then —Interlibrary Loan and Distance Services; call (414) 288-3606 or e-mail Joan Sommer for more information.

Significant new collections in the Department of Special Collections and Archives

- The Stephen Sondheim Research Collection is now available to researchers. It includes books, magazines, scores, reviews, programs, CDs, videotapes, and items relating to the Broadway composer and lyricist.
- New oral histories of Milwaukee Holocaust survivors are available in “I’ll Tell you a Story:” Memories of Pre-Holocaust Europe, the latest addition to the Libraries’ digital collections. Complete transcripts of interviews of Milwaukee immigrants conducted in 1983 are available. Read announcement or connect to the collection here.

10. Recent Graduate Student and Alumni Accomplishments

Department of Counselor Education and Counseling Psychology

The following 5 graduate students made a joint presentation at the APA annual meeting:

Edwards, Lisa M., Stubbs, Lucia, Guerrero, Jennifer, Tassara, Marcel, and Durrah, Darnell (2011, August). Gender differences in religiosity and well-being outcomes among Latino/a adults. Poster presented at the annual meeting of the American Psychological Association, Washington, DC.

What have you been up to lately? Have you presented the results of your research at a conference? Have you had a publication accepted? Did you receive a scholarship or grant? Our graduate students are a productive, if somewhat modest, lot. We know you don’t want to brag, so let us do it for you.

Please e-mail your professional and scholastic accomplishments for inclusion in this newsletter to Mr. Thomas Marek, Assistant Director for Financial Aid. Your digital photos for reprint are welcome.
