With MetLife Auto & Home® insurance, a group discount is just the start.

With insurance from MetLife Auto & Home, you could get more protection for your auto, your home — and your budget. It features the coverage you need for your most important possessions at special employee discounts that could save you up to 10%. But that's just the beginning.

Whether you get auto insurance or homeowners insurance — or both — with MetLife Auto & Home you'd be eligible for discounts based on your years of service with the company that could save you an additional 20%. You'd also be eligible for a discount if you had multiple policies.*

As a safe driver, you could be rewarded by earning $50 toward your deductible for every year you drive without filing a claim — for up to five years. That could save you $250 in the event of an accident. There are also discounts if you've passed a Metropolitan-approved driver improvement course, or if your auto had passive restraints, antilock brakes, or anti-theft devices.

You can see how these discounts could really add up. That's a big reason to call us today at 1 800 GET-MET 8 (1-800-438-6388) and speak with a licensed insurance consultant.
