Tekakwitha Conference National Center
222 N. Bolton Avenue
Alexandria, Louisiana 71301
Phone
http://www.tekconf.org

History:

1939-1976 The Tekakwitha Conference served as an annual meeting supporting the pastoral mission of Northern Plains Indian missionaries

1977-present The Tekakwitha Conference reorganized and became an international association and annual meeting supporting the spiritual needs of Native American Catholics

1980-2013 The Tekakwitha Conference established a national center, located first in Bozeman, and then in Great Falls, Montana

2013-present The Tekakwitha Conference national center relocated to Alexandria, Louisiana

The Tekakwitha Conference non-current records are archived at Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin:
http://www.marquette.edu/library/archives/Mss/TC/TC-main.shtml. Since 2011, the Tekakwitha Conference has archived its newsletter (Cross and Feathers) on its website.