The Marquette University Special Collections and Archives Department will grant permission to use images or text from the St. Francis Mission Records that meet the following conditions and forward the application to the Buechel Memorial Lakota Museum of St. Francis Mission for its approval.

Marquette University Archives will grant permission to use documents (e.g. images, pages of text) from the St. Francis Mission Records that meet the following conditions. Most applications will be approved within two business days. However, some circumstances may require additional time.

1. Patrons must request permission in writing or electronically using the Application for Printing, Publication or Exhibition. Possession of a document copy (e.g. image, text) does not constitute permission to use it.
2. Permission is granted for one-time, one-project use only. Marquette retains all rights to the documents. They may not be used for any other purpose than that listed on this application.
3. Credit must be given as “Courtesy St. Francis Mission and Marquette University. Saint Francis Mission Records, ID ____.” See example in red below. Also include the photographer or creator of the work, if known.” The credit must appear with the document or on a credit page that indicates page number and position on the page.
4. If negotiated in advance, Marquette may agree to modifications in the format and location of the credit line.
5. If the document is still under copyright and the copyright is not held by Marquette University, the applicant must seek permission from the creator of the work or from the current copyright holder. The archives staff will provide the creator’s name, if known.
6. Marquette University assumes no responsibility for infraction of copyright laws, invasion of privacy, or any other improper or illegal use that may arise from reproduction of any image. In all instances the applicant agrees to hold the University and its agents harmless against any and all claims arising or resulting from the use of this image and shall indemnify the University and its agents for any and all costs and damages arising or resulting from any such authorized use.
7. Images may be cropped to suit design and layout, but they may not be altered, colorized, or drawn upon without a letter of permission in addition to a signed permission form.
8. Marquette University Libraries reserves the right to decline permission to publishers and individuals who do not comply with these terms.
9. Marquette University Libraries requests the donation of two copies of a publication. Please send one to Marquette University at the address above and the other to the Buechel Memorial Lakota Museum, P.O. Box 499, Saint Francis, SD 57572.
