History: The Christian Brothers established the San Francisco Province in 1868. Since then they have taught American Indian students at the following Catholic schools:

Ca. 1907-Ca. 1910	Christian Brothers (then Martinez; now San Francisco Province, Napa, California) briefly shared administration of St. Mary School
1980-1990 (closed)	St. John the Baptist School (Maricopa and Pima), Laveen, Gila River Reservation, Arizona
2004-present	San Miguel High School (Tohono O'odham and Yaqui), Tucson, Arizona; includes a few Indian students

Holdings of Catholic-related records about Native Americans are unknown.
