History: The Diocese of Honolulu was erected for Hawaii in 1941. It succeeded the Prefecture-Apostolic for the Hawaiian/ Sandwich Islands, 1826-1844 and the Vicariate-Apostolate for the Hawaiian Islands, 1844-1941, both of which were under the leadership of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary. From ca. 1840s-present, a number of American Indian Catholics from resided in the Honolulu area (due to fishing industry and military employment). In 1999, it was estimated that 500 baptized Native American Catholics from various tribes resided within the Honolulu Diocese.
