History: The Poor Sisters of St. Francis Seraph of the Perpetual Adoration, now known as the Sisters of St. Francis of the Perpetual Adoration, were founded in 1863. In 1875 they established the Immaculate Heart of Mary Province, which was their first U.S. foundation. The province staffed the following Catholic schools, which served American Indian students in New Mexico:

1904-1932	Jemez Day School (Jemez), Jemez Pueblo, Jemez Reservation
1915-1932	St. Francis of Assisi Mission (Apache), Jicarilla Reservation
1929-1932	Our Lady of Guadalupe Mission (Zuni), Zuni Pueblo, Zuni Reservation
