Holdings of Catholic-related records about Native Americans:

Inclusive dates: 1593-present, n.d.

Volume: Over 700 cubic feet and 568 reels of microfilm

Description: More than 30 collections include Native Catholic records about American Indians and Eskimos in the United States. Other records about native peoples either are not Catholic-related or pertain to peoples in Canada and Latin America. Christianity and Native America provides a gateway to all native-related collections with an introductory narrative and an annotated collections checklist, which links to online catalog records and extensive descriptive inventories of collections that are fully processed and ready for research use. Other resources include Digital Collections of selected images and texts about Native Americans in the United States and Online Exhibits about Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha, Saint Katharine Drexel, and Black Elk (Oglala). Search the Collections provides keyword searching across all collections and Genealogical Requests provides a special introduction and request form for genealogical researchers.
