This is a volunteer position. The Outreach Team's main responsibility will be presenting about vocation and engaging in conversation about vocation and discernment with their peers in various settings, including but not limited to student organization meetings, residence hall floors and classes. Our goal is to bring each individual in the group to a deeper understanding of their own personal vocation. We hope the Outreach Team members can be catalysts for the campus community, helping them to examine how their personal passions, skills and experiences can be used to serve others while giving fulfillment to their own lives.
