FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BI-ANNUAL FR. WILD FORUM AIMS TO ANSWER STUDENTS' CONCERNS

MILWAUKEE – Oct. 19, 2009 – Marquette University Student Government will be sponsoring the Fr. Wild Forum on Tuesday, Oct. 27 at 7 p.m. in the first floor common area of the Alumni Memorial Union.

The Fr. Wild Forum occurs each semester and serves as an opportunity for students to express their questions or concerns. The theme of this semester's forum is "Where the Wild Things Are."

In addition to Marquette University President, Robert A. Wild, S.J., Senior Vice President Greg Kleibhan and Provost John Pauly, Ph.D will also be participating. Students are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to communicate with the university's top officials.

"The Fr. Wild Forum is a great opportunity for students to speak to top influential people at the university," said Henry Thomas, MUSG president. "It gives power to the students that they wouldn't get at every other institution. They're given the freedom to speak their thoughts, and it allows them to have a voice at the university."

In carrying out with the theme of "Where the Wild Things Are," MUSG will be holding a contest in anticipation of the event. All attendees will be entered into a drawing to win prizes like a video iPod nano. The student must be present at the forum in order to win.

The Marquette University Student Government was developed in 1882 as the governing body of the Marquette community. Its goal is to identify, understand, actively address and represent students' needs, concerns, and interests through acts of leadership and service, which reflect Catholic, Jesuit ideals and contribute to the betterment of the Marquette University community.
