MUSG AFTER DARK COMMISSION TO PRESENT CRAFT-A-PALOOZA

MILWAUKEE (January 26, 2009) –The Marquette University Student Government After Dark Commission will be hosting Craft-A-Palooza on Friday, Jan. 30 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in Marquette Place in the AMU.

Craft-A-Palooza is an annual event that gives students the opportunity to enjoy a Friday night with friends while working on a variety of craft projects. This year's projects include canvas painting, t-shirt decorating, no-sew pillows, and scrapbooking. The event will also feature a chocolate fountain, which students can sample while participating in the projects. The event is free and all students are encouraged to attend.

“Students really enjoyed the event last year because there was a wide range of crafts to work on,” said After Dark Commissioner, Dawn Chanath.
