FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TRAVEL TO CHICAGO'S DAVE & BUSTER'S WITH MUSG

MILWAUKEE (February 11, 2009) On Friday, Feb. 20 from 7 p.m. to 2 a.m., cruise off campus with Marquette University Student Government's excursion to Dave & Buster's, a Chicago eatery that offers an extensive drink and dinner menu as well as a full video arcade.

Buses will depart from SHAMU, the road located between Schroeder Hall and the Alumni Memorial Union, at 7 p.m. on Feb. 20. Students will then travel to Dave & Buster's, where they can sample everything from "Over the Wedge Cheese Fries" to signature burgers. After making the difficult decision of what famous dessert to indulge in, students can play hundreds of games in the restaurant's Million Dollar Midway video arcade. Buses will return to campus at 2 a.m. on Saturday, Feb. 21.

Tickets are available starting Thursday, Feb. 5 in the Brooks Lounge, located on the AMU first floor. Tickets are $20 and include transportation and a $20 game card. Students must be 18 years of age or older to attend and 21 or older to receive a beverage wristband.

"This is a great event for students who want a little change in the every week activities that are offered at Marquette. Not only are we taking a trip to Chicago, but we are going where students are offered a multitude of choices in how they desire to fill their evening," said MUSG Excursion Commissioner Praem Kodiath.
