FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MUSG TO HOLD MARQUETTE INNERCHANGE

MILWAUKEE (February 17, 2009) – Marquette University Student Government will host Marquette INNERchange Monday, Feb. 23 from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. in the AMU Monaghan Ballroom E.

Marquette INNERchange gives participants the opportunity to contribute to an open discussion on issues of diversity within the Marquette community. Members of the faculty, staff and student body will be present at the discussion to address questions regarding diversity and celebrate age, culture, faith, ethnicity, race, gender, sexual orientation, language, disability and social class.

The INNERchange will take place in three 20 minute individual round table discussions of four to six people each, enabling participants to sit in at several tables to obtain different perspectives on the topics presented. This event will serve as a forum for members of the Marquette community to voice their opinions about diversity, pose questions and find answers.
