FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MUSG TO PRESENT "NICK AND NORAH'S INFINITE PLAYLIST"

MILWAUKEE (Jan. 20, 2009)- This week's Varsity Theatre movie "Nick and Norah's Infinite Playlist" will be playing Friday, Jan. 23 and Saturday, Jan. 24 at 10 p.m. with admission being only $2 when a valid MUID is presented and only $3 for general admission.

According to Internet Movie Database, in this romantic comedy it has been about three days since Nick's (Michael Cera) girlfriend Tris (Alexis Dziena) dumped him when she shows up to his band's gig with a new guy.

At Nick's gig, Tris' best friend Norah (Kat Dennings), not wanting to seem dateless, asks Nick to pretend to be her boyfriend for five minutes and gives him a big kiss. Tris becomes jealous and decides she wants Nick back. After an eventful night, one of these girls will end up winning Nick's affections.

According to the database, "Nick and Norah's Infinite Playlist" is a night of "stripping nuns, psychotic ex-boyfriends and lovingly trash ex-girlfriends, but it is also a night of holding hands, writing songs and singing in the rain. It is a night they'll never forget."
