They didn’t need anyone to hold the door for them. They just needed someone to open it.

In 1909, Marquette admitted women undergraduates, becoming the first Catholic university in the world to go coed.

Join the Centennial Celebration of Women at Marquette  www.marquette.edu/women100

MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY

Be The Difference.