The event will support the Casa Romero Renewal Center, a local non-profit that offers an array of holistic retreats and programs for local families and parish communities. Its mission encompasses a philosophy which looks “to form and renew individuals, strengthen families and build communities.” Father Wild will be blessing the tree and a representative from Casa Romero will also be speaking. A reception will follow immediately after the ceremony with cookies, hot chocolate, and apple cider.

Remove the Blindfold

Remove the Blindfold is a social justice program that is designed to educate students about past and current social justice issues. The program is aimed to provoke thought and action in students, and to allow students to view what life is like for individuals who are oppressed. A wide spectrum of issues, from gender identity to HIV/AIDS struggles, will be represented. The program will run from February 16-20, 2009, from 6-9pm. Look for more publicity to come!

This Spring Break...
Make it about people

The Marquette Action Program (M.A.P.) is now accepting applications for service trips during the 2010 Spring Break.

For over 30 years, students have enjoyed interacting with people across the nation and learning from them. M.A.P. trips are an opportunity for students to contribute to the community, expose themselves to different social, cultural, and economical situations in society.

Apply online at www.marquette.edu/cm/service/map/map. Applications are due at the end of the day January 22, 2010.
