Think you want to be a Resident Assistant?

Ask yourself:

Would I like to become more involved on campus?

How do I interact with people?

Do I feel comfortable in conversation with others?

With training, do I think I would be able to confront policy violations or handle crisis intervention?

*Am I willing to make a time
commitment to being an RA?*

Prepare yourself:

Be yourself.

Think about your strengths and areas that you would like to improve.

Think about how past jobs could apply to the RA position.

Get involved on campus. Joining Hall Council or a student organization is a great way to develop your leadership potential.

Talk with an RA about their job.

Think you are ready? Apply!

It is almost Thanksgiving Break!

Wednesday, November 25-
Sunday, November 29

The residence halls will be open during Thanksgiving break for residents who are unable to travel home.

If you are staying in the hall there is a RA and a Hall Director on Duty if you need assistance.

Being on campus does not have to mean being bored! Here is a list of some things to occupy your time:

- Volunteer at the Salvation Army or Food Pantry
- Campus Ministry Thanksgiving Dinner, November 26th
- Thanksgiving Brunch in Cobeen Hall, November 26

DOROTHY DAY SOCIAL JUSTICE LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITY

Join the Dorothy Day Social Justice living/learning program and you will discover for yourself how justice can be an everyday part of your life. This program, offered for the first time in 2009-10, provides an opportunity for 44 sophomore students to live together in Straz Tower and participate in a yearlong social justice focused living/learning experience.

Requirements:

-The program is open only to second year students.

-Each student must take Phil 1001 in fall 2010 and Theo 2400 in Spring 2011 and participate at a service-learning site for the full academic year.

-Because Theo 1001 (Introduction to Theology) is a prerequisite for Theo 2400, this course must be completed before spring 2011.

-Each student will live on a designated floor in Straz Tower that is available only to program participants.

Applications will be available starting January 25 and will be due February 28.
