Residence Life Leadership Awards (RLLA)

RLLA is an event that is held at the end of the academic year with the purpose of recognizing councils for their contributions to the residence life community. It is a time for councils to celebrate and showcase all of their hard work with other councils across campus. In addition, NRHH also presents The Council Leadership Awards (CLAs) at RLLA. Swearing in of the new NRHH and RHA executive board also occurs at RLLA.

Closer to the event, NRHH will provide councils with more information and specifics relating to RLLA. The list below identifies items that councils may want to begin working on in preparation for RLLA. These items are optional and will not be judged in any way by NRHH.

- 20 pictures that showcase council members and or events. These pictures will be due to NRHH's shutterfly account by April 1st, 2011. Account information has been distributed to council presidents and advisors.

- A scrapbook or display showcasing what the council has accomplished over the year, or showcasing a program that the council is proud of. This is a great way to show others what the council has been working on in the past year and also useful as an archive for future councils.

Council Leadership Awards (CLAs)

CLAs are an opportunity for councils to showcase the great programs that they have done throughout the year. Councils can also recognize the people that have really gone above and beyond expectations.

CLAs are given out at the Residence Life Leadership Awards

The due dates for CLAs are as follows:

- All written submissions are due Friday, April 1st, 2011
