

Dorothy Day Social Justice Living/Learning Community Application for the 2012-2013 Academic Year

The Dorothy Day Social Justice Living/Learning Community is comprised of a select group of 44 sophomore students who will be housed together in Straz Tower and will enroll in special Service Learning sections of Philosophy 1001, Philosophy of Human Nature, in the fall semester and Philosophy 2310, Philosophy of Ethics, in the Spring semester. Students will be actively involved with social justice issues within the Milwaukee community.

Faculty, staff and students will also create out-of-classroom experiences that bring students together in meaningful reflection on concepts taught in the classroom, on their service experiences, and on other out-of-classroom experiences that help shed light on the meaning of social justice in their lives.

The program is named to honor Dorothy Day, the most inspiring Catholic advocate for social change in the United States.
