

The Committee on Research
First Annual Institute for Faculty

Career and Time Management

January 12, 2005, Alumni Memorial Union

Program

7:30-8:20 a.m.	Continental Breakfast	AMU 227
8:30 a.m.	Welcome and Overview. Dr. Madeline Wake, Provost	AMU 227
8:35-9:45 a.m.	Plenary Session. Career and Time Management Presented by faculty panelists: Dr. William E. Cullinan, Associate Professor, Biomedical Sciences Dr. William A. Donaldson, Wehr Professor, Chemistry Dr. James A. Marten, Acting Chair and Professor, History Dr. Kristina M. Ropella, Chair and Professor, Biomedical Engineering Dr. James B. South, Associate Professor, Philosophy	AMU 227
10:00-10:45 a.m.	Plenary Session. Preparing for Tenure Presented by members of the Promotion and Tenure Committee	AMU 227
11:00-11:45 a.m.	Breakout Session A. Working with Graduate Students Presented by members of the Board of Graduate Studies	AMU 254
11:00-11:45 a.m.	Breakout Session B. Grant Budgets and Timelines Presented ORSP staff	AMU 252
12:00-12:45 p.m.	Lunch	AMU 227
12:45-1:30 p.m.	Luncheon Address: Dr. Debra W. Stewart, President, Council of Graduate Schools. "The Future of Graduate Education and Implications for Future Faculty Roles"	AMU 227
1:45-3:00 p.m.	Plenary Session. Research Mentoring: Support for Academic Career Development Presented by Dr. Mary Mundt, Dean of the University of Louisville School of Nursing	AMU 227
3:15-4:30 p.m.	Plenary Session. Negotiation Skills Presented by Andrea K. Schneider, Professor of Law	AMU 227
4:30-5:30 p.m.	Reception	HENKE