Job Title: Winter Flurry Director

Organization Name: Student Development

Hours per week: This is a student leadership position, for which an honorary stipend is given. While minimum work hours are not specified and employees in the positions do not track hours, in general a student who is successful in the role devotes about 10 hours per week to their leadership responsibilities.

Payment: Stipend

Duties: Responsible for the development, planning and coordinating of programs for the winter social held in January. Student must have prior programming and leadership experience. Should be able to communicate effectively, coordinate the student planning team, maintain program budget and possess good attention to detail.