Any student organization that wishes to have a homepage linked with the Marquette University homepage in conjunction with the Office of Student Development and other student organizations must complete this agreement. The homepage creator agrees to read and abide by the rules, guidelines, and policies set forth in the Guidelines for Official Student Organization Homepages and the Marquette University Web Publishing Guidelines for Official Homepages. This policy can be found at the following website: <http://www.marquette.edu/upp/documents/upp1-21.pdf>. This agreement will be kept on file by the Office of Student Development as long as the organization homepage is in existence on a Marquette University owned computer system.

1. As a representative of _____ organization, I, _____, have read the Marquette University Web Publishing Guidelines for Official Homepages and I understand them and agree to abide by them.
2. I agree that the contents and presentation of this homepage will be consistent with the stated values of my organization, as reflected in the organization's constitution and its national affiliate (if any), as well as with the values of Marquette University, as reflected in Marquette University's mission statement, ethos statement, and other official statements.
3. I will not use any copyrighted material or registered trademarks on my homepage without the express written permission of the copyright or trademark holder.
4. If using the Marquette logo (guidelines apply and permission is needed) in my organization homepage, I agree to use only the officially approved Marquette logo according to the specifications in the above-mentioned university guidelines.
5. I will not violate any international, federal, state, or local laws, including, but not limited to copyright laws.
6. I will abide by the official policies, including but not limited to, policies and procedures of Marquette University's Information Technology Services, the Division of Student Affairs, the Office of Student Development, the Marquette University Code of Conduct.
7. I understand that by violating laws or university policies, I will be subject to prosecution by the appropriate law enforcement agency or university conduct proceedings. I understand that I will be held responsible for the contents of my organization's homepage.
8. I understand that these homepage procedures and policies are subject to change in any manner at any time to better meet the changing needs of internet management at Marquette University.

By signing this form, I indicate my agreement to the above statements.
