

HOME AWAY FROM HOME: YOUR RESIDENCE HALL

No matter where you live on campus, you'll become part of the vibrant and caring community that is Marquette. Nearly 95 percent of incoming students live on campus — a testament to the strength of our campus community and the educational benefits of residential living.

You'll be asked to select your top four housing options as part of completing your next step forms (refer to the instructions for admitted students in your acceptance packet for details). You must complete the selection process by May 1. Housing assignments are random, and roommate, room type and hall preference will be honored to the extent possible.

Take a quick glance at our campus housing options below, and visit marquette.edu/orl for more information about each of our residence halls, our meal plan and our specialty living-learning communities.
